Joseph Shelia P. Moses

For Joseph Flood, life is tough. Tough because of Mama's addiction to drugs and alcohol. Tough because Daddy is away with the army fighting in Iraq. Tough because it looks like there's no way out once you're living in a homeless shelter in a North Carolina ghetto neighborhood. And tough because Joseph is enrolled in yet another new school where he doesn't know anyone and has to keep what's going on in his life a secret.

Joseph struggles to keep Mama clean and to hold their broken family together while trying to make new friends and join the school tennis team. Can a boy who's only fifteen years old win his daily battle to survive?

Joseph is a powerful and moving story from the author of National Book Award finalist The Legend of Buddy Bush that looks at what it really takes for a boy to begin to become a man.

Miguel Ross:

As a scholar exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library or even make summary for some book, they are complained. Just tiny students that has reading's heart or real their hobby. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring along with can't see colorful photos on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important to suit your needs. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Joseph can make you experience more interested to read.
