L'ordre juridique de la Communauté européenne fait partie intégrante de la réalité politique dans les quinze États membres. Des milliers de décisions qui ont une influence déterminante sur la vie des États membres et des citoyens européens sont prises chaque année sur la base des traités européens. Depuis longtemps, les ressortissants des États membres ne sont plus seulement des citoyens de leur ville, de leur commune ou de leur État, mais également de la communauté. La présente publication a pour but de leur faire connaître l'ordre juridique européen. Elle s'adresse essentiellement aux non-juristes, en cherchant à présenter les textes des traités dans un langage accessible au profane.
