Has God called you to Messianic leadership? If you are in the midst of planting a Messianic congregation, or just beginning to consider the idea, this book will provide assistance and di-rection, outlining a solid biblical foundation on which to establish your congregation. If you are already involved in an established congregation, you will find practical tools for use in evaluating the health and function of your congregation, and receive encouragement and direction as you move forward in ministry. In this practical congregational development guide, Sam Nadler comes alongside leaders, walking through the steps it takes to build a healthy and functional congregation that will serve to proclaim God's faithfulness in Messiah to Israel and the nations. At whatever stage of the process you may be, this book is designed to support you in your vital work!
