Soulmates, The Formula: A guide to find true love Vincent Sylvan

Are you sharing your life with your Soulmate? Here is this poem for you,

It occurred me today, as a thought came to my mind that the reason that I am not great, is because you don't make me rime. And I think, why is this to be? I love you, and I think you are my mate? But as I reason and meditate I realize that if we have to follow our natures we must have to separate. This will be hard and painful, tears will come to my eyes, emotions will be shattered and I will make you cry. But a duty I have toward my Maker and this is greater than I am, please forgive me darling but I have to find my rime. To rime and embrace greatness, to rime and reach the skies, to rime and find my Maker... to rime and make myself shine.
