Insights: Money William Barclay

From the coins in our pockets to the trillions spent by our governments, we are all caught up in difficult decisions on how to use money. Many of us try not to think about the responsibilities and consequences of accumulating wealth and possessions; yet some of us sense that it is somehow detrimental to our spiritual wellbeing. But what does the Bible say about money? These insights reveal the true cost of wealth and possessions. Cutting through all the commercialism and superficiality that are increasingly typical of the great Christian events and themes, the Insights series brings the Bible vividly to life.
