Now, though, having suffered a head injury, he realizes he may never be able to ride again. As Kevin recuperates, Lara Donahue finds her childhood hero's heart is far more wounded than his body. Lara must carefully guard her own heart - she's determined that the man she loves will love God first, and her second. But that's clearly not Kevin's plan. Can Lara hold fast to her faith - or will she be thrown by the memory of her schoolgirl crush?
