A internet vem provocando uma revolução no consumo e produção das histórias em quadrinhos. Desde as primeiras HQtrônicas (neologismo criado por Edgar Franco para se referir às obras que unem a linguagem tradicional dos quadrinhos com as novas possibilidades da hipermídia) até os atuais webcomics, são muitas as facetas existentes. O livro "Os quadrinhos na era digital: HQtrônicas, webcomics e cultura participativa" reúne uma série de estudos sobre o tema, desenvolvidos por doze pesquisadores que conhecem bem o assunto e que analisam desde as tirinhas on-line e os quadrinhos na cibercultura até as rage comics e as novas formas dos fãs de mangá interagirem com suas obras favoritas, como o fansub e o scanlation.
