The Book of Common Prayer, Interpreted By Its History (Classic Reprint) M. Butler

Preface. THE greater portion of the following work was brought before the authors congregation in the form of lectures, during the past winter. As it now stands, it is the partial fulfilment of a plan which was designed to embrace the whole Book of Common Prayer. It is published with the hope that it may aid in guiding the inquiring mind of the Church and the public, to the true interpretation of our forms and services. c. M. B. HOWARD STREET, BOSTON, JUNE 2, 1845.
