Thousands of books have been written on Revelation, most from one of only a handful of theological schemes. Finally, one book has been written that offers a truly unique perspective on Revelation; the book you are reading about right now. This book has been written at the request of radio listeners from over 65 countries who have heard this Messianic/Hebraic perspective on Revelation in recent months, on the author's international radio program. Listeners have said this perspective is so fresh and so obviously true that it is nothing short of life-changing. The author plainly demonstrates in these pages, complete with illustrations, that the prophetic message of Revelation speaks to the very time and situation which grips the world today. Did you sense the global spiritual shift that occurred in 2008? The series of radio programs that inspired this book predicted in advance the very changes that started unfolding upon the world during that year. Radio listeners have seen the occurrence of predicted events as confirmation of this Revelation message, which has now been refined and encapsulated in this book, with new material also added. Based on the experience of many radio listeners who have already heard this message, here is what you can expect as you read this book: You will finally break the barrier of superficiality that clouds most teachings on Revelation. The unique Hebraic approach of this book will help you to have a sense of certainty about what Revelation really means. Read this book and Revelation will become as relevant to your daily life as your morning newspaper. More relevant in fact, since it will give you timely insight into God's Great Plan. According to this Hebraic account of Revelation, Divine judgments that have waited for millennia are now being unrolled upon the world. The insights gained from rightly understanding Revelation can aid you personally to be prepared for these judgment events, so that you can emerge through them with a favorable outcome.
