Black Husband Wanted Valentina Gerini

From Zanzibar to the Dominican Republic, this is the story of Federica who lives for several months in exotic places and wants to know the world. She desires to get in touch with different cultures and is strong enough to face hard situations. She believes in important values ??such as friendship and love and is certainly the latter, overwhelming and unexpected, what moves all situations and influence her decisions to the point of changing the direction of her journey. She has always wanted to marry a foreign man and her dream finally come true. "Black man wanted" is inspired by trips and experiences that author has actually done. To respect the privacy of the people who have been part of these trips, the writer invented for them fancy names.
