El día que maté a mi padre: Confesiones de un ex comunista (Spanish Edition) Jorge Sigal

En forma de monólogos que acentúan su carácter dramático, Jorge Sigal cuenta su larga relación con el Partido Comunista argentino. Las escenas se desarrollan con una fluidez fuera de lo común y revelan sobre todo la historia de extraños desenlaces, crímenes políticos, lealtades y traiciones que acarreó el enfrentamiento de una creencia y una ideología con la dura realidad. Dirigidos a distintos interlocutores y audiencias (entre los que pueden contarse un analista y una comitiva de «camaradas»), cada uno de estos textos reunidos forma un conjunto notable, tanto por su valor narrativo como por su importancia testimonial. Especie de sueño heroico y pesadilla, «El día que maté a mi padre» es además el combate de un solo hombre contra una tribu de autoridades. Libro atrapante, esclarecedor, inolvidable.
