Hearts Made Whole (Beacons of Hope Book #2) Jody Hedlund

1865

Windmill Point, Michigan

Can She Forgive the Hurting Man Who Costs Her the Role She Loves?

After her father's death, Caroline Taylor has grown confident running the Windmill Point Lighthouse. But in 1865 Michigan, women aren't supposed to have such roles, so it's only a matter of time before the lighthouse inspector appoints a new keeper--even though Caroline has nowhere else to go and no other job available to her.

Ryan Chambers is a Civil War veteran still haunted by the horrors of battle. He's secured the position of lighthouse keeper mostly for the isolation--the chance to hide from his past is appealing. He's not expecting the current keeper to be a feisty and beautiful woman who's angry with him for taking her job and for his inability to properly run the light. When his failings endanger others, he and Caroline realize he's in no shape to run the lighthouse, but he's unwilling to let anyone close enough to help. Caroline feels drawn to this wounded soul, but with both of them relying on that single position, can they look past their loss to a future filled with hope...and possibly love?

"With painterly prose that never skimps on wit and verve, Hedlund gives us vivid characters, inventive plot twists, fascinating historical detail and heartfelt faith journeys....Lovers of inspirational fiction won't want to miss this sparkling gem of a novel." -RT Book Reviews Top Pick

"Hedlund's superb and affecting story of faith and healing is set in the past, but its message about soldiers returning from battle rings just as true today."--Booklist starred review

"This second book in the Beacons of Hope series is a brilliant adaptation of life in 1865 and the faith and responsibilities of a light keeper."--Christian Retailers + Resources
