The Flood: (ebook Edition) (Gr 9-10 1951 1957) Alfred Rehwinkel

When you begin to ponder the terrible judgement of the Flood waters that God used to completely destroy the first world, then immediately a number of perplexing problems present themselves. For example:

- How can we explain the coming together of all the animals and birds from all parts of the world at one time?
- How was it possible for eight people to feed and provide drink for all the different animals in the Ark for over a year? How was it possible for them to clean the Ark?
- Where did all the water come from? Is there actually enough water on our planet to cover the entire earth?
- How could the Ark accommodate the natural increase of the animals?
- Is the alleged discovery of the remains of Noah's Ark on Mount Ararat by a Russian aviator a true account?
- What became of all the water when the Flood subsided?
- Did the Flood waters rise to an elevation to cover such lofty heights as Pike's Peak, Mount Everest, Mount McKinley?
- When did the Flood begin? How long did it last?
- Where did Noah acquire the 'know-how' for building such a spacious and durable Ark?
- How can we account for the rapid progress of the nations following the Flood?
- What was the population?

To all these troublesome questions -- and many more -- the author submits satisfactory solutions. From archeology, excavations, honest historical research, Dr. Rehwinkel proves the inspired Word of God to be an absolute reliable source book -- also in dealing with natural phenomena and scientific facts.
