HE SPOKE I WROTE Karen Foster

From scoffer to believer in the blink of an eye. From one saying, "You've all been duped, there is no God," to down on my knees saying, "My Lord and my God." As a brand new Christian, the author took a class on Spiritual Gifts, and immediately knew she wanted all that God had to offer. So, she began praying daily for a gift. One night as she got into bed, a bright white light filled her room. And, out of that light boomed a voice that she knew instantly. It said, "Get up and write". So she got up, and sat at her desk with pen and paper ready. Then His words began, and she wrote as fast as she could, even using some words that she did not know. After hours of writing, it became clear that this was the gift she had been seeking. And with that revelation, the Light went out. These poems are God's gift to one who needed His touch. May they open your heart to the joy of His presence, and the assurance that if you seek God, and listen, you will hear His voice. Be still, and know that I am God. Psalm 46:10 NKJ
