Based on the ideas of Neuro-Lingustic Programming and Ericksonian hypnosis, this program utilizes stories, analogies, metaphors, and guided imagery to involve the listener in a hypnotic process that stimulates imagination and intuitive learning. This program is designed to enhance learning skills such as: concentration; retention; problem-solving, and test taking. Dual induction (two people saying different things at the same time) deepens trance, increases suggestibility, and intensifies the effects of hypnosis for a unique experience. The combination of a male and female voice has a nurturing appeal that adds an extra dimension to the trance process. The background music is pleasant and was composed specifically for hpynotic listening. This CD is ideal for high school and college student, and adults in continuing education.
