Les possédés (French Edition) Fyodor Dostoyevsky

Pour raconter les événements si étranges survenus dernièrement dans notre ville, je suis obligé de remonter un peu plus haut et de donner au préalable quelques renseignements biographiques sur une personnalité distinguée: le très-honorable Stépan Trophimovitch Verkhovensky. Ces détails serviront d'introduction à la chronique que je me propose d'écrire. Je le dirai franchement: Stépan Trophimovitch a toujours tenu parmi nous, si l'on peut ainsi parler, l'emploi de citoyen; il aimait ce rôle à la passion, je crois même qu'il serait mort plutôt que d'y renoncer. Ce n'est pas que je l'assimile à un comédien de profession: Dieu m'en préserve, d'autant plus que, personnellement, je l'estime. Tout, dans son cas, pouvait être l'effet de l'habitude, ou mieux, d'une noble tendance qui, dès ses premières années, avait constamment poussé à rêver une belle situation civique. Par exemple, sa position de «persécuté» et d'«exilé» lui plaisait au plus haut point. Le prestige classique de ces deux petits mots l'avait séduit une fois pour toutes; en se les appliquant, il se grandissait à ses propres yeux, si bien qu'il finit à la longue par se hisser sur une sorte de piédestal fort agréable à la vanité.
