Their life was a fairy tale—until it all came tumbling down.

Hearts of the South, Book 10

Georgia Bureau of Investigation agent Amy Bennett isn't sure when her own Prince Charming went AWOL from their marriage, but she's certain of one thing. She wants him back. She and Rob had it all: law-enforcement careers they loved and each other. Yet somehow he's wound up sleeping on the couch and emotionally beyond her reach.

Rob is trying to put the pieces back together, but battling his own demons while starting over in a small-town sheriff's department is pushing him—and his marriage—to the breaking point.

His very first missing person's case threatens to end anything but happily ever after for the families involved. Then a young man goes missing too, and the pressure has Rob reaching for the nearest lifeline. The one that's dangling by the barest of threads—his wife.

And though Amy's grip is strong, her love may not be enough to keep Rob from slipping away.

Warning: Contains a husband who's holding too much in, and a wife who'll do anything to get him to let go, even meet him halfway on their last piece of common ground—in bed. Also: cop bonding between cops who talk like cops.
