Summer of Love (The Principles of Love Book 5) Emily Franklin
School's out for summer, but Love's romantic education is still in session

Senior year of high school looms large for Love Bukowski after a tumultuous junior year of romance and heartbreak. But for now, Love is ready for summer break on Martha's Vineyard. Running her aunt Mable's café with her best friend Arabella may not be glamorous, but it will at least be fun and perhaps just the refresher she needs after the crazy year she's had. Plus, Mable's created a treasure map of clues that will bring her closer to the truth about her family.

Though the past is starting to look clearer, the future is anything but. Love's three months of freedom will end with big questions about college (and Jacob). For now, the boys of summer are more appealing than ever, and the summer of Love is about to begin . . .
