Who is Jesus? George W. Truett D.D.

This volume, Number VI in The Truett Memorial Series, is composed of fourteen sermons of the late Dr. George W. Truett, for forty-seven years pastor of the First Baptist Church, Dallas, Texas. These sermons all deal with the Person, the Mission and the Message of Jesus Christ — themes that were ever central in the ministry of this gospel preacher. The question asked in the title of the first sermon of this volume finds answer and abundant illustration in the fourteen sermons herein. George W. Truett will long be remembered for a number of things that characterized the man and his ministry. Supreme among these things was his firm faith that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, the Saviour of the world, and the one rightful Lord and Master of men. This faith gave color and character to every sermon he ever preached. That explains why the multitudes heard him gladly. Faith is the victory that overcomes the world, for people hunger for the certitudes of faith. It may be that many will be helped by looking at Jesus through the eyes of His devoted friend and follower, George W. Truett.
