Lena could just kick herself.

When teacher Lena Butler agrees to be tour guide for a visiting film producer, she regrets it immediately. He's everything she dislikes—he's charming, undisciplined, and unpredictable. But it won't be long before she can get back to her routine and dreams of securing a vice principal position. And Dixon Edwards makes her laugh, something she'd forgotten how to do.

Dixon Edwards came to St. Augustine to scout locations for his Christian film company, but it's his lovely but uptight guide who grabs his attention. He decides to teach Lena how to relax and enjoy life. Their feelings for each other grow quickly, but when Lena is offered her dream job, she must decide which is stronger—her need for security or her love for Dix.

Can Lena learn to trust God with her heart's future?
