Chava's Story: A Soviet Jewish Story Estelle Chasen

Chava's Story is a moving and inspiring novel for teenagers and adults, portraying life under the Communist regime. As we follow Chava Bernstein from her teens through old age, from Kovno in Lithuania to Odessa in the Ukraine, and Samarkand in Uzbekistan, we witness the Jews' eternal longing and love for Israel, and the miraculous survival and rekindling of the Jewish spark in the souls of a part of the Jewish family believed to have been lost. Readers who are moved by this story may also like to read Ghetto Girl which traces the life of Chava's friend, Esther Rosen, whose family remain in Kovno when World War II begins.
