One Man Two Votes: A Suspense Thriller J Russ Briley

Corruption and a conspiracy to steal American votes weren't Robert Carlton's expectations. Getting swept into the dangerous, seedy side of Washington wasn't his planned path to political power. Being killed or blown up wasn't either. If you love thrillers and are a Clancy and Grisham fan, this is your rollercoaster ride.

Robert Carlton is unwillingly thrown into terminating a conspiracy to control the federal voting system. His college friend working for the NSA reveals the problem, but not who is behind it. Soon after the friend talks, he's targeted. Robert is the US Associate Attorney General, but in this he is over his head--politically, technologically, and physically. There is no option. If he doesn't stop the plot, Americans lose control of their vote. Worse yet, they will never know it happened.

Weaving their way past corrupt politicians and their ruthless operatives, Robert and Lt. Col. Grady Barlow work to learn the truth. Grady enlists pentagon cryptographers and Robert the Secret Service, in their attempts to stop the carnage. Twists and turns keep Robert guessing and Grady ducking, as they struggle to find out how and why this is happening. The answers take them high into rancid levels of government.

With family, friends, and his career in the crosshairs, Robert is forced to solve the mystery--and he doesn't have much time. Join Robert and Grady as they struggle to survive, righting wrongs in Washington DC's crooked underworld of politics.
