The Demography of African Americans 1930-1990 (The Springer Series on Demographic Methods and Population Analysis) S.H. Preston, I.T. Elo, Mark E. Hill, Ira Rosenwaike

The authors of this work use a novel strategy that combines record linkage and demographic/statistical analysis to produce an internally consistent and robust set of estimates of the African-American population during the period 1930-1990. They interpret the record that emerges, with special reference to longevity trends and differentials. This work is for demographers, sociologists and students of ethnic studies.
