Lord of the Hunt and Other Tales of Grace Steve Robinson

This is a collection of beautifully told, brutally honest, and poignant stories that span over fifty years of the author's life. They tell about God's relentless pursuit of His beloved but broken human beings, revealing His healing presence within our darkest, and often secret, struggles, failures and shame. Steve's clear insights into our common brokenness and our sometimes desperate reaching toward The Light are written with compassionate directness, gentle wisdom, and graceful humor. There is no dark corner of the human heart he leaves unexplored and no Light from the heart of God unrevealed. "We are all dancing on broken legs..." Illustrated by the author.
