X (Modern Plays) Alistair McDowall

It's a tax write-off. This is where they send the new, the under-qualified, the old. And most of all the British. Mars is full of blonde Americans. It's like they're building the master race out there.

Billions of miles from home, the lone research base on Pluto has lost contact with Earth. Unable to leave or send for help, the skeleton crew sit waiting.

Waiting.

Waiting long enough for time to start eating away at them.

To lose all sense of it.

To start seeing things in the dark outside.

Alistair McDowall's play X premiered at the Royal Court on 30 March 2016 in the Jerwood Theatre Downstairs.

Joseph Carter:

As a scholar exactly feel bored for you to reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library or to make summary for some publication, they are complained. Just minor students that has reading's spirit or real their hobby. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring along with can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this X (Modern Plays) can make you sense more interested to read.
